TRIAD FAMILY NETWORK, INC.
FCC FORM 340, SECTION II, QUESTION II
FEBRUARY, 1991

EXHIBIT NO. I

The purpose of TRIAD FAMILY NETWORK, INC., and its proposed station is to provide:

- a) An interdenominational and non-sectarian Christian broadcasting outlet, programmed for the Biblical and spiritual instruction/education and inspiration of its listeners.
- b) Medical and health-related educational program to both the medical community and the community at-large.
- c) Training opportunities for students in the areas of programming and station operation.
- d) An outlet of public expression.
- e) An outlet of local expression particularly for youth.

TRIAD FAMILY NETWORK, INC.
FCC FORM 340, SECTION II , QUESTION IV
FEBRUARY, 1991

EXHIBIT NO. II

The purpose for establishing the proposed station is to provide a non-commercial, educational FM program service to the Winston-Salem, North Carolina community. Special emphasis will be given to programs addressing medical and health-related issues, and spiritual, psychological, family, and community-related issues.

The Winston-Salem market is currently served by another educational station, WFDD-FM, which airs classical music, news, and some programming of general educational and community interest.

Winston-Salem State University operates WSNC-FM, 90.5, whose licensee is the Board of Trustees of Winston-Salem State University. Its programming is gospel, jazz, and rhythm & blues music and some public affairs items. WSNC is aimed substantially at the black university and general public community.

The proposed application of TRIAD FAMILY NETWORK would bring the third area public FM outlet of local expression to Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Further described herein are the objectives and programming of TRIAD FAMILY NETWORK which amply justify a third Non Commercial/Educational FM outlet in Winston-Salem under section 307(B) of the Communications Act of 1934. It is our intention to provide a valuable alternative public radio service to augment that of WFDD and WSNC.

The proposed station would provide yet another facet of information programming to both the community at large, which has a need for and interest in up-to-date medical and health-related information, and the large medical community in Winston-Salem. In addition to two other hospitals, North Carolina Baptist Hospital is the teaching and research arm of Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University. This large medical and medical student community would not only benefit from the station's medical programming, but would also serve as a resource to the station for its locally-produced medical/health programs/features.

The station will have an on-going official advisory board including members of the medical community to provide direction in the production of local medical/health programming. They will also
